

HOMELAND SECURITY PROGRAM • LAW ENFORCEMENT DIVISION

Incident Command System (ICS) Train-the-Trainer Course

- Course Providers: Virginia Department of Emergency Management
U.S. Department of Homeland Security
Virginia Department of Criminal Justice Services
- Course Date: October 10-11, 2012
- Time: 0800-1700 hours day one
0800-1600 hours day two
- Training Location: Chesterfield, Virginia
- Course Description: This day and half course has been designed to assist experienced classroom law enforcement instructors to provide consistent ICS training standards to their respective organizations utilizing the most up-to-date information available. This training will also provide resources that will enable instructors to keep pace with the latest changes in NIMS and ICS concepts. Participants will learn invaluable tips on how to teach each of the ICS courses. Graduates will be certified to teach the Introduction, Basic, Intermediate, and Advanced Incident Command System courses as well as the Senior Executives/Elected officials course (ICS 402).
- Course Objectives:
- Be able to discuss various methods by which the courses may be organized and delivered.
 - Describe the difference in content between the Introduction, Basic, Intermediate, and Advanced.
 - Define and discuss the various State and Federal laws that govern the ICS and its use within the Commonwealth of Virginia.
 - Describe the relationships between local, regional, state and federal organizations as they pertain to ICS and the global emergency management community.
 - Promote a message of consistent content and delivery of ICS courses throughout jurisdictions in the Commonwealth.
- Prerequisites:
- Applicants must meet the following to be considered:
 - Successful completion of accredited IS 100, IS 200, ICS 300, ICS 400, IS 700 and IS 800.
 - Recognize and understand techniques of instruction and adult education methodologies.
 - Possess ICS practical experience or have served as an Incident Commander or in a command or general staff position, or have specialized knowledge and experience appropriate for the audience.
 - Complete course application and have approval of their agency head.

Eligible Participants: Law enforcement officers who are DCJS instructors. Class size is limited.

CEUs: CEUs and/or PIC forms will be awarded upon successful course completion

Tuition and Cost: Tuition and course materials are free. Students are responsible for lodging and any other related travel expenses.

Registration Deadline: September 12, 2012 (selected students will be notified by email)

Submit completed and signed Application and all prerequisites (ICS completion certificates and proof of qualification in adult education) to VDEM Office of Training and Exercises, 10501 Trade Court, Chesterfield, VA 23236-3713, or fax 804-897-6556 or email at lmshelp@vdem.virginia.gov no later than September 12th.

POC: Janice H Cosel
Virginia Department of Criminal Justice Services
janice.cosel@dcjs.virginia.gov
804-225-4334